

New Nosework Start Dates

at Austin Canine Central

Introduction to Nosework: Mastering the Indication

Nosework is a fast growing sport for dog sport enthusiasts with multiple organizations offering the chance to compete for titles. The goal of this eight week class is to lay a solid foundation and indication of the target odors. A solid indication is the most important factor to achieve success in this sport.

Introduction to Nosework: Mastering the Indication

Eight week class $175 per dog and handler team

Class Start Date: Sunday, July 9, 2017 - 6:00PM to 7:00PM (Class size is limited)

Advanced Nosework Techniques

Teams will be challenged with training games, handling exercises, practice trial situations and settings. We will incorporate all elements, odors, and distractions commonly found in Nosework competitions. This class places emphasis on building strong communication between the handler and the dog while you work through a variety of challenges that are present in competitions.

Advanced Nosework Techniques

Eight week class $150 per dog and handler team

Class Start Date: Sunday July 9, 2017 - 7:00PM to 8:00PM (Class size is limited)

Prerequisites: Completion of Introduction to Nosework or instructor approval

Nosework Open Practice

Nosework Open Practice is a drop-in class for dog and handler teams with prior Nosework experience regardless of the venue, that have the goal of participating in UKC, AKC, USCSS or NACSW trials. The dogs should have a reliable indication to target odor and should be prepared to work a variety of search environments. Teams will work to refine their handling and indication skills as they will work through simulated trial scenarios and skill games. This is a chance to problem-solve whatever issue that you may have encountered.

Nosework Open Practice

$75 ongoing enrollment or $20 per dog drop-in rate

Start Date: Sunday July 9, 2017 - 8:00PM to 9:00PM

Prerequisites: prior Nosework experience

Instructor

Kathryn Butts and her Scottish Terrier, Bentley were the 5th team nationwide to attain the UKC title Elite Nosework (EN). She is a judging official for both UKC and AKC.
